Dennis Chassaniol

running for Associate Judge, Circuit 11

<https://www.dennischassaniolforjudge.com/>

I would be honored to have your vote to serve St. Charles County as Associate Circuit Judge for Division 10.

My years serving as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Municipal Judge, and private practice attorney have given me the experience our community needs from those serving on our circuit court.

St. Charles County families need a court that will put justice first. If elected, I will uphold the Constitution, apply the law as written, and manage my docket effectively and efficiently.

Dwayne Johnson

Republican for Division 11 Associate Circuit
Judge

<https://www.dwaynejohnsonforjudge.com/>

I'm running for judge because I want to give back to St. Charles County. I met my wife here, I raised three children here, and I am proud to call this community home.

In 2022, four of our judges will be retiring and this community will be losing 130 years of collective legal experience. We are the fastest-growing county in the state, and if we want to remain a dynamic community, we need judges who have experience, who hold our same values, and who believe that the safety of the people of St. Charles County should come first.

If elected, I will enforce the law as written, obey the Constitution, and ensure justice is carried out.

Jeff Sandcork

running for Associate Judge, Circuit 11

<https://sandcorkforjudge.com>

Invested in the St. Charles County community.

Jeff Sandcork has served the residents of St. Charles County for more than 23 years. He is one of six children and learned from an early age that honesty and integrity are the building blocks of the family and society, as a whole.

Jeff and his wife, Mary Beth, have been married for almost 28 years, a testament to open communication and loyalty. Together they raised two daughters who exemplify their commitment to family. They have attended The Lutheran Church of the Atonement for more than 20 years.

A family tradition of seeking justice.

Jeff is a second-generation attorney. He followed in his father's footsteps as a solo practitioner of the law. The insights and experience he obtained from that relationship are incalculable. He graduated from the University of Missouri at Columbia with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Government. He went on to earn his Juris Doctor from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School in 1994.

In 1999 Jeff Sandcork moved his practice to St. Charles County. For more than two and a half decades, he's represented the citizens of St. Charles County and its neighbors.

Meggie Biesenthal

running for Associate Judge, Circuit 11

<https://www.meggiebforjudge.com/>

About Meggie:

"I am a lifelong St. Charles County resident raising my family in Dardenne Prairie. I am a public defender who has spent my career advocating for indigent people. I have experience handling all levels of criminal cases. I chose to run for judge when I learned four of the current associate judges are retiring this year. I want to bring a fresh energy to the bench.

I am passionate about connecting litigants with mental health & substance abuse treatment. I am a trained mediator who has mediated landlord-tenant & child custody cases, & I have worked in St. Louis County's PreTrial Release program. These experiences when combined with my compassion qualify me to serve as an Associate Circuit Judge from St. Charles County, for St. Charles County. "

Trisha McCulloch

running for Associate Circuit Judge

<http://mccullochforjudge.com/>

“I'm a local conservative attorney and active St. Charles community member running for Associate Circuit Judge (Division 6) in St. Charles County.”

Trisha McCulloch graduated from UMKC School of Law in May of 2012 with Honors and an emphasis in Family Law. During her time in law school, Trisha served as an editor for the Law Review and was selected as a Teaching Assistant for the Legal Writing Department for her second and third year of law school.

In 2014, she accepted a position with the St. Charles County Juvenile Center as a contract guardian ad litem for abuse and neglect cases throughout St. Charles County. Trisha opened the law firm of TEM Law, LLC in September of 2015. Prior to establishing her own firm, she was an associate in St. Charles, Missouri from 2012 where she worked as his family law associate for Todt, Ryan & McCulloch.

Trisha serves as treasurer for the St. Charles County Family Resource Center and for the St. Charles County Bar Association. She is on the executive committee of the Young Lawyers Board of the Missouri Bar Association and a provisional judge in Cottleville, Missouri.

Trisha McCulloch joined The Center for Family Law as an of counsel attorney in 2020. Trisha joined the firm after successfully running her own family law practice in St. Charles since 2015. Prior to that, she practiced family law with her father-in-law in St. Charles. In addition to representing parents and individuals in family law matters, Trisha has extensive experience as a Guardian ad Litem. In 2014, Trisha was appointed as a contract Guardian ad Litem for the St. Charles County Juvenile Center, which has allowed her to be well-versed in the unique procedure and rules in juvenile cases.

Trisha was born and raised in Wisconsin. She moved to Missouri in 2009 to attend UMKC School of Law, where she graduated with honors and an emphasis in family law. Upon graduation from UMKC, Trisha and her husband moved to the St. Louis area to start her legal career. In her free time, Trisha loves to go on new adventures with her husband and spend time chasing around her three children. <https://www.thecenterforfamilylaw.com/trisha-mcculloch-joins-the-center-for-family-law>
